The Member shall pay such fees, security deposits and other monies as may be notified from time to time on its admission or continuity as a Member.
2. Any fees, deposits, remittance, other monies available with Clearing Corporation but belonging to any Member under Bye- Laws, Rules and Regulations shall be subject to a first and paramount lien for any sum due or reasonably expected to be due to Clearing Corporation and for all its claims against the Member for due fulfillment of engagements, obligations and liabilities of Members arising out of or incidental to any Trades which are made subject to Bye- Laws, Rules and Regulations of Clearing Corporation. Clearing Corporation shall be entitled to adjust or appropriate such fees, deposits and other monies towards such dues and claims, to the exclusion of the other claims against the Member, without any reference to the Member.
3. A Member of any segment may clear and settle Trades pertinent to that segment through Clearing Corporation in such manner and mode as may be prescribed by Clearing Corporation.
4. Members may transact, clear and settle Trades either on their own account or on behalf of the Constituents unless otherwise specified by Clearing Corporation from time to time.
5. Clearing Members may submit Constituent's Trades in the relevant segment to Clearing Corporation. Such submission of Constituent Trades shall be made, only after the Clearing Member has, to its satisfaction, verified the eligibility of such Constituent and completed all necessary formalities/ requirements (including but not limited to any KYC requirements) under applicable law. Any ongoing compliance arising therefrom shall be the sole responsibility of the Clearing Member and Clearing Corporation shall in no manner be responsible for the same.
6. Without prejudice to the foregoing specific obligation of the Clearing Member with respect to compliance of eligibility criteria and KYC requirements under applicable law in respect of the Constituent(s), Clearing Corporation may for its records require submission of various documentation in respect of the Constituent(s) at the time of initial grant of access and on an ongoing basis.

7. In the event of any change in control or reorganization, amalgamation / merger of the Member, Clearing Corporation shall be promptly informed about the same. Clearing Corporation shall have a right to call for such information, data and documentation as may be deemed necessary for reviewing such membership and the Member shall provide the same to Clearing Corporation and also extend all the necessary co- operation in this regard. Further, Clearing Corporation may also require additional documentation as may be deemed necessary and within such period as may be specified by Clearing Corporation pursuant to the change in control or reorganization, amalgamation/merger.
8. Any person admitted to Membership of Clearing Corporation shall be bound by all Bye- Laws, Rules, Regulations as amended from time to time as if such Bye- Laws, Rules and Regulations are terms and conditions of one single independent contract between Clearing Corporation on the one part and the Member on the other part and Clearing Corporation and each one of the Member multilaterally inter - se.
9. Clearing Corporation, at its discretion, may direct/instruct the dealing system operator to suspend a Member and / or its Constituent(s) from trading on its Dealing System for violation of any of the provisions of its Bye- Laws, Rules and Regulations and cancel all orders pending at such time. The suspension shall continue until Clearing Corporation decides to withdraw such suspension.

CHAPTER VII: CLEARING AND SETTLEMENT OF TRADES

1. CLEARING AND SETTLEMENT OF TRADES

1.1 Clearing Corporation shall clear and settle Trades in the manner provided under its Bye- Laws, Rules and Regulations.

1.2 Notwithstanding anything contained in the Bye-Laws, Rules or Regulations of CCIL, Constituent Trades (including client trades of a Trading Entity) received by Clearing Corporation from the Clearing Member shall be deemed to be the Trade of such Clearing Member. The Clearing Member shall be responsible for the clearing, margining and settlement of such Trades in terms of the Bye Laws, Rules and Regulation of Clearing Corporation.

1.3 In the relevant segment, Trades of clients of a Trading Entity shall be accepted as a Constituent Trade of the concerned Clearing Member who acts as such for those Constituent(s) who are clients of the Trading Entity. The said Clearing Member shall be solely responsible in all respects for the purpose of clearing and settlement of all such Trades.

2. CONCEPT OF NOVATION

Each transaction entered into by a Member with another Member shall be deemed to have been individually novated by a new obligation, being a contract with Clearing Corporation under Bye- Laws, Rules and Regulations for the same Value Date. The amounts that would otherwise have been deliverable or receivable by each Member to or from every other Member on such settlement date shall be netted and replaced by a contract for the net deliverable or receivable to or from Clearing Corporation.

3. ADMISSION OR REJECTION OF TRADES

Clearing Corporation may, approve, defer, or reject such Trades for Clearing and Settlement subject to such terms as it may deem fit.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Clearing Corporation shall not be responsible for the title, ownership of the securities delivered or received and genuineness, regularity and validity of transactions/trades or the loss and damages arising there from. Any questions in respect of the title, ownership, genuineness, regularity and validity if and when arising, shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of Bye- Laws, Rules and Regulations thereof.

4. ARRANGEMENT FOR CLEARING AND SETTLEMENT

Clearing and Settlement of Trades submitted by Members shall be effected by adopting and using such arrangements, systems, agencies or procedures as may be prescribed from time to time and the same shall be forthwith binding on the Members.

5. OPERATIONAL PARAMETERS FOR CLEARING

- (1) Clearing Corporation may disclose and advise from time to time operational parameters for the Clearing of Trades through Clearing Corporation which the Members shall adhere to.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality, the operational parameters may include:
 - (a) Risk exposure limits, including net debit cap in respect of Forex transactions, which may be computed with reference to the contribution to the MCC / collaterals, such contribution/ fixation being based on certain performance parameters of the Members as decided by Clearing Corporation from time to time;
 - (b) other matters which may affect the clearing of Trades, keeping in view the larger interest of the members;
 - (c) determining types of Trades permitted for a Member and in respect of a security/ foreign exchange, money market, derivatives or other transactions;
 - (d) determining functional details of the Clearing and Settlement system including the system design, user infrastructure and system operation;
 - (e) determining the Margin payment Obligation;
 - (f) determining the Margin requirements in the form of funds or securities and the nature of securities;
 - (g) determining the MCC and its composition, value, form, tenor etc;
 - (h) determining the quantum of contribution to the default fund, if applicable;
 - (i) determining the positions, calculation of net obligations etc., and
 - (j) such other parameter as maybe decided by Clearing Corporation from time to time.

6. CLEARING HOURS

The hours for working in Clearing and Settlement of different segments of Clearing Corporation shall be such as may be decided by Clearing Corporation from time to time.

7. BUSINESS HOURS

- (1) The business hours for transactions in various segments shall be applicable as per the window of operations stated in the Regulations of the concerned segment.
- (2) Clearing Corporation would normally function on all the days, excluding Sundays and those days that are declared as holidays under the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 and such other days on which transactions/settlement may not take place as declared by RBI or such other authority.

8. CLOSING OUT

- (1) A Trade admitted for Clearing and Settlement may be closed out on failure of a Member to comply with any of the provisions relating to delivery, payment and settlement of Trades or on any failure to fulfill the terms and conditions subject to which the Trade has been made, or such other circumstances as the Clearing Corporation may specify from time to time. The Trade may be closed out by Clearing Corporation in such manner, within such time frame and subject to such conditions and procedures as the Clearing Corporation may prescribe from time to time.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, Clearing Corporation may close out Trade with suitable compensation in securities or foreign currency or monies or in such other form as Clearing Corporation may deem fit to respective parties in case of trades in Government Securities, derivatives, Forex, Forex Forward, FX Options and Repo/Triparty Repo transactions or in any other segment as the case may be.
- (3) Clearing Corporation has the right to close out and/or liquidate and the same shall not limit or exclude any other rights which Clearing Corporation possess whether by agreement, or an applicable law or otherwise. Clearing Corporation shall have the general and global right to set-off all amounts owed by a defaulting party under these Bye- Laws, Rules and Regulations.
- (4) Close-out as and when effected by Clearing Corporation shall be treated as a part of Clearing and Settlement process as set out in the Bye- Laws, Rules and Regulations.
- (5) For this purpose, “Close- Out” means termination of transactions before the date of settlement on which they are due, in accordance with the Bye- Laws, Rules and Regulations of Clearing Corporation.

9. FAILURE TO MEET OBLIGATIONS

In the event a Member fails to meet its obligations to Clearing Corporation arising out of the Clearing and Settlement operations of admitted trade,

Clearing Corporation may charge such interest, impose such penalties and fines and take such disciplinary action including suspension and cessation of membership, as it may determine from time to time. Any disciplinary action which Clearing Corporation takes pursuant to the above shall not affect the obligations of the Member to Clearing Corporation or any remedy to which Clearing Corporation maybe entitled against the Member under its Bye-Laws, Rules and Regulations.

10. RECORD FOR EVIDENCE

The record of Clearing Corporation as maintained by a central processing unit or a cluster of processing units or computer processing units, including the hard/soft copies thereof, or maintained in any other manner including record of telephonic conversations shall constitute conclusive evidence in relation to any Trades cleared and settled through Clearing Corporation.

For the purposes of any disputes regarding Clearing and Settlement of Trades such records as maintained by Clearing Corporation shall constitute conclusive evidence in any dispute or claim between the Members inter-se or between Members and Clearing Corporation.

11. MEMBER ONLY PARTIES TO TRADES

Clearing Corporation shall not in any manner recognize nor rely on, any transaction other than those of its own Members.

Every Member shall be directly and wholly liable to Clearing Corporation in respect of all its Constituents, unless it is expressly specified otherwise by Clearing Corporation in all transactions executed on behalf of such Constituent(s). Clearing Corporation shall have no liability to any party other than the Member.

12. INVIOABILITY OF ADMITTED TRADES

- (1) Trades settled through Clearing Corporation subject to Bye-Laws, Rules and Regulations of Clearing Corporation shall be inviolable and shall be cleared and settled in accordance with Bye- Laws, Rules and Regulations of Clearing Corporation.
- (2) Notwithstanding the foregoing, Clearing Corporation may on application by any affected Member in that behalf decline to clear or settle any trade, if Clearing Corporation is satisfied after hearing the concerned parties to the Trade(s) that the Trade(s) is/ are fit for rejection on account of fraud or market manipulations or price manipulations in the trade or in relation to any instruments. Provided however that, in any event where the deals have been novated, such deals shall be irrevocable for the purpose of effecting settlement, without prejudice to other actions under Bye- Laws, Rules and Regulations or any other law.

13. FINALITY OF SETTLEMENT

A Settlement effected in accordance with the Bye- Laws, Rules and Regulations shall be final and irrevocable. Such settlement shall include close-out of trades as per the procedure laid down in the Bye-Laws, Rules and Regulations.

14. FEES AND CHARGES

Clearing Corporation may prescribe from time to time the fees, charges and recoveries to be levied on the Members in respect of Clearing and Settlement of their Trades.

15. RIGHT TO SET OFF

Notwithstanding anything contained in Bye- Laws, Rules and Regulations, Clearing Corporation shall have the absolute right to set off the liability of a Member on account of default in one segment against its receivables in any other segment of Clearing Corporation.

16. MEMBERS' RIGHT TO SET-OFF

In the event of any default/ insolvency of Clearing Corporation, a non-defaulting Member shall have the right of set-off of the net payables or net receivables across all the segments of Clearing Corporation that have become due and payable resulting in a net pay- in or net pay- out position.

For the sake of clarity, Net Payable or Net Receivable amounts under each segment would be arrived at separately for each such member after close-out of all trades and net of these amounts across all segments would be arrived at and would be payable or receivable by a member.

CHAPTER VIII: DEFAULT FUND

- 1 Clearing Corporation may maintain a Default Fund (DF) for each Segment and for such purposes as may be prescribed by Clearing Corporation from time to time.
- 2 Clearing Corporation may, under these Bye- Laws, Rules and Regulations prescribe from time to time the norms, procedures and terms and conditions governing such Default Fund which may inter alia specify the amount of contribution to be made by each Member to the relevant fund, the terms, manner and mode of contributions, conditions of withdrawal of contribution from the fund, charges for utilization and penalties and disciplinary actions for non-performance thereof.
- 3 The Default Fund shall be utilized for such purposes as may be provided for in Bye- Laws, Rules and Regulations and subject to such conditions as Clearing Corporation may prescribe from time to time.
- 4 A Member, in case of Default or cessation of membership to the Segment, shall be entitled to the repayment of contribution made by it or any balance remaining, after necessary adjustment for its obligations and also towards recovery of dues and claims of Clearing Corporation under the provisions of Bye- Laws, Rules and Regulations, in the Default Fund.
5. A Member failing to replenish the Default Fund for a Segment within the time period specified is liable to be expelled and barred from participation in that Segment. Such Member will however continue to be liable for their outstanding trades till those trades are closed-out or settled as per the terms of the Trade.

CHAPTER IX: MEMBER COMMON COLLATERAL / COLLATERALS

1. CLEARING CORPORATION TO MAINTAIN A MEMBER COMMON COLLATERAL / COLLATERALS

- (1) Clearing Corporation shall maintain a Member Common Collateral (MCC) in respect of the segments for such purposes as may be specified by Clearing Corporation from time to time.

Provided however that, nothing contained under the Bye-Laws, Rules and Regulations shall preclude the Clearing Corporation from also maintaining, a dedicated segment specific Collateral wherever required.

- (2) Clearing Corporation may prescribe from time to time the norms, procedures and terms and conditions governing MCC which may inter -alia specify the amount of contribution to be made by each Member to the relevant fund, the terms, manner and mode of contributions, conditions of withdrawal of contribution from the fund, charges for utilization and penalties and disciplinary actions for non-performance thereof.

2. CONTRIBUTION TOWARDS MCC

- (1) Each Member shall be required to contribute to the MCC such sum or amount as may be determined from time to time by Clearing Corporation and such contribution shall be held by Clearing Corporation to be applied as provided for in these Bye- Laws, Rules and Regulations.

- (2) Clearing Corporation may also specify such additional contribution as may be required towards the MCC by the Members from time to time to be made part of the MCC.

3. FORM OF CONTRIBUTION

Clearing Corporation may prescribe from time to time the form in which contribution to the relevant MCC is to be made.

4. REPLACEMENT OF SECURITIES

By giving advance notice to Clearing Corporation and subject to such conditions as may be specified by Clearing Corporation from time to time, a Member may withdraw securities from his contribution towards MCC/Collaterals with Clearing Corporation and replace the same with other eligible securities as required by Clearing Corporation.

5. ADMINISTRATION AND UTILISATION OF THE MCC

- (1) The MCC shall be utilized for such purposes as may be provided for in Bye- Laws, Rules and Regulations and subject to such conditions as Clearing Corporation may prescribe from time to time which shall include:
 - (a) expenses for creation, maintenance and repayment of the MCC;
 - (b) investment in such approved securities and other avenues and subject to such terms and conditions as may be decided by Clearing Corporation from time to time;
 - (c) meeting shortfalls and deficiencies arising out of the Clearing and Settlement of such Trades as provided for in Bye- Laws, Rules and Regulations;
 - (d) satisfying any loss or liability of Clearing Corporation arising out of Clearing and Settlement operations of such Trades as provided for in Bye- Laws, Rules and Regulations;
 - (e) repayment of the balance after meeting all obligations under Bye- Laws, Rules and Regulations to a Member when it ceases to be a Member pursuant to the provisions regarding repayment of such portion of the contribution made by a Member upon cessation of Membership;
 - (f) any other purpose as may be prescribed from time to time.
- (2) Save as otherwise expressly provided in Bye- Laws, Rules and Regulations, the MCC shall not be utilized for any other purpose.
- (3) Clearing Corporation shall have the full power and authority to utilize, pledge, re- pledge, hypothecate, create a security interest in, assign or Repo/Reverse Repo or otherwise use in any other manner for the purpose of raising liquidity any or all of the (i) Monies in the MCC, (ii) Securities contributed by the Member to MCC (iii) Securities or other instruments in which MCC is invested and (iv) Eligible securities pledged/contributed by a Member or any instrument/ monies provided on behalf of a Member in favour of Clearing Corporation towards the MCC or for any purpose related to or in connection with the Clearing and Settlement of transactions received and accepted for settlement in terms of the Regulations of the respective segment.

6. UTILISATION FOR FAILURE TO MEET OBLIGATIONS

In the event a Member fails to meet its obligations to Clearing Corporation as provided for in Bye- Laws, Rules and Regulations, Clearing Corporation may utilize the balances in MCC / Collaterals and other monies due to such member from Clearing Corporation to meet such obligations.

7. OBLIGATIONS TO BRING IN ADDITIONAL CONTRIBUTION

- (1) If a portion of the contribution of the Members is utilized as provided for in Bye- Laws 6 above against a Member's actual contribution and as a consequence the Member's remaining contribution towards the MCC falls below the level of its required contribution and deposit, the Member shall contribute or deposit in the MCC, the deficient amount, within such time as Clearing Corporation may stipulate in this respect.
- (2) If the Member fail to do so, Clearing Corporation may not allow the Member's Trade(s) to be included as part of guaranteed settlement and may also, at its discretion, initiate disciplinary action. Any disciplinary action which Clearing Corporation takes for involuntary cessation of membership by the Member shall not affect the obligations of the Member to Clearing Corporation or to any remedy to which Clearing Corporation may be entitled under Bye- Laws, Rules and Regulations or under any applicable law.

8. ALLOCATION OF THE CONTRIBUTION OR DEPOSIT

Member's contribution to MCC shall be as allocated and directed by Clearing Corporation among various segments. Clearing Corporation shall retain the right to utilize the MCC allocated to a particular Segment by a Member towards the satisfaction of losses or liabilities of Clearing Corporation incidental to the operation of that Segment or of any other Segment in respect of that Member as may be decided by Clearing Corporation

CHAPTER X: MARGINS

1. MARGIN REQUIREMENTS

Clearing Corporation may stipulate Margin requirements for its various Segments and the nature thereof, and vary the same from time to time using such criteria as may be deemed prudent for Acceptance of Trades for Clearing and Settlement through Clearing Corporation and the Member shall furnish Margin in the required form, as a condition precedent, for Acceptance of its Proprietary and / or Constituent Trades for Clearing and Settlement.

2. FORMS OF MARGIN

- (1) The Margins to be provided by a Member under Bye- Laws, Rules and Regulations shall be in the form of funds, securities, foreign currency – denominated papers or any other form as approved by Clearing Corporation.
- (2) A Member depositing Margins in the form of funds, securities, foreign currency – denominated papers or in any other form as approved by Clearing Corporation, by way of pledge or otherwise or in such other mode as may be prescribed by Clearing Corporation from time to time, may always maintain the value thereof at not less than the quantum of margin required at any given time covered by them by providing further security to the satisfaction of Clearing Corporation which shall determine the value and such valuation shall conclusively fix the amount of any deficiency to be made up from time to time.

3. CONTRIBUTION TO MCC TO BE PART OF MARGIN

Contribution made by any Member towards MCC under Chapter IX of Bye- Laws shall be deemed to be a part of Margin contribution by such Member.

4. UTILISATION FOR FAILURE TO MEET OBLIGATIONS

Clearing Corporation at its discretion shall be entitled to appropriate to itself any amount paid by a Member in the form of Margin or any other payment or proceeds or disposal of any other security or foreign currency towards fulfilling the Member's obligations arising out of Clearing and Settlement.

CHAPTER XI: DISPUTE RESOLUTION

1. All claims, differences or disputes between the Members inter- se arising out of or in relation to operation of payment system including in relation to dealings, contracts or transactions executed or reported as specified by Clearing Corporation and made subject to the Bye- Laws, Rules and Regulations or with reference to anything incidental thereto or in pursuance thereof or relating to their validity, construction, interpretation, fulfillment or the rights, obligations and liabilities of the parties thereto and including any question of as to such dealings, transactions and contracts have been entered into or not shall be submitted to dispute resolution in accordance with the provisions of these Bye- Laws and Rules.
2. Clearing Corporation shall not be responsible for any dispute between the Clearing Member and its Constituent(s) and / or Trading Entity. Provided however that, any dispute between the Clearing Member, Trading Entity and Constituent shall be settled through a dispute resolution mechanism as may be provided under Rule 6 of Chapter X of the Rules.
3. All claims, differences or disputes between the Member(s) on one hand and the Clearing Corporation on the other hand arising out of or in relation to operation of payment systems including in relation to settlement of dealings, contracts or transactions executed or reported as specified by Clearing Corporation or with reference to anything incidental thereto or in pursuance thereof or relating to their validity, construction, interpretation, fulfillment or the rights, obligations and liabilities of the parties thereto and including any question of whether such dealings, transactions and contracts have been entered into or not shall be submitted to the Reserve Bank of India. The reference of such dispute shall be to the Officer-in Charge, Department of Payment and Settlement Systems, Central Office, Reserve Bank of India. The decision of such officer of Reserve Bank of India shall be final and binding on the parties to the dispute.
4. In the event of any claims, differences or disputes between the Members submitted to dispute resolution as set out in Bye- Law 1 above of this Chapter, such claim, difference or dispute shall be referred to the Panel for Resolution of Disputes (PRD) consisting of not less than five Members other than the Members who are parties to the dispute. The decision of the PRD shall be final and binding on the parties to the dispute. A Member, if not satisfied with the decision of the PRD may refer the dispute to the Appellate Authority at the Reserve Bank of India. The reference of such dispute shall be to the Officer-in Charge, Department of Payment and Settlement Systems, Central Office, Reserve Bank of India. The Appellate Authority shall dispose of the appeal within 15 Working Days of submitting the appeal. The decision of such Appellate Authority shall be final and binding on the parties to the dispute.

5. In case of disputes where the Reserve Bank of India is an involved party, the dispute shall be referred to the Central Government which may authorize an officer not below the Rank of Joint Secretary for settlement of the dispute and the decision of such officer shall be final and binding on all parties.
6. Clearing Corporation may, from time to time prescribe Rules or Regulations for the matters which in the opinion of Clearing Corporation are required to be dealt with in the Rules or Regulations to facilitate dispute resolution between the members of the Clearing Corporation including the procedure to be followed by the parties in dispute, the procedure to be followed by the PRD in conducting the Dispute Resolution proceedings etc. Clearing Corporation from time to time may amend, modify, alter, repeal, or add to the provisions of the Rules.

7. DISCLOSURE BY PERSONS TO BE APPOINTED AS PRD

Every Member who is approached in connection with his possible appointment as a member on the PRD shall disclose to Clearing Corporation in writing any circumstances likely to give rise to justifiable doubts as to his independence and impartiality more particularly when a dispute is referred to the PRD. If the person discloses any circumstances which in the opinion of Clearing Corporation are likely to give rise to justifiable doubts as to his independence and impartiality, then he shall not be Member of PRD in respect of such dispute.

8. DISCLOSURE BY PERSONS APPOINTED AS MEMBERS OF PRD

A Member, from the time of his appointment on the PRD and throughout the dispute resolution proceedings, shall, without delay, disclose to the parties and Clearing Corporation in writing any circumstances referred to in Bye- Law (7) above which have come to his knowledge after his appointment as a member to the PRD.

9. . TERMINATION OF TENURE OF THE MEMBER ON THE PRD

The tenure of member on the PRD shall terminate:

- (a) if such Member withdraws from office for any reason; or
- (b) where such member is unable to perform in accordance with the Bye- Laws and Rules; or
- (c) on completion of one year from the date of appointment; or
- (d) such member discloses any circumstances referred to in Bye- Laws (7) or (8);

10. ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANCE

To facilitate smooth conduct of the dispute resolution proceedings, the Clearing Corporation shall provide such administrative assistance as may be necessary for proper conduct of dispute resolution with respect to all claims, differences or disputes which are submitted to PRD as per the provisions of these Bye- Laws and Rules,

11. VENUE OF DISPUTE RESOLUTION:

All the proceedings in relation to dispute resolutions shall be conducted in Mumbai, unless otherwise specified by Clearing Corporation after consultation in this regard with the PRD.
