Provided however that, Margin requirements shall not apply where Prefunding is received by the Clearing Corporation.

2. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, Clearing Corporation shall have the sole discretion to improve upon and perfect its practices relating to risk containment measures from time to time;
3. The values of outstanding Trades shall be converted into equivalent risk exposure numbers by using security specific risk exposure factors (expressed in terms of percentage based on “Value at Risk” or such other means as may be decided by Clearing Corporation) and each Member shall be required to provide for initial Margin to the extent of such amounts as corresponds to Member’s value of outstanding Trades. Clearing Corporation shall be entitled to modify the risk exposure factors at such periodicity as it may deem fit;
4. Clearing Corporation, after due notification, may be entitled to set higher margin factors for different Members, based on the credit assessment by Clearing Corporation.

Clearing Corporation may take the assistance of any reputed rating agency/ subsidiary for arriving at such ratings and the decision of Clearing Corporation in regard to the selection of rating agency/ subsidiary or in regard to the ratings arrived at for the Members shall be final and binding on the Members.

Notwithstanding the credit rating/ grading, Clearing Corporation may hike/step-up the Margins of a Member in case of any regulatory actions/ deterioration in financial position/ adverse market report etc. Where such Member acts as a Clearing Member for Clearing the Trades of its Constituents, an additional hike/step-up in Margin may be applied by Clearing Corporation. Where higher margin factors are set for the Trades of a Clearing Member, such higher margin factors shall also be applicable to all Trades of its Constituents.

5. Clearing Corporation may, after due notification, set prudential limit for each Member in terms of its aggregate outstanding trade exposure of the Member (in terms of total consideration or otherwise, as may be decided by Clearing Corporation from time to time). Such limit may be set by Clearing Corporation based on the Member’s nature of business, net worth or such other factors as considered appropriate by Clearing Corporation. In the event of Members exceeding such limit, Clearing Corporation may be entitled to set higher margin for the Member in respect of Trades which are in excess of such limits;
6. Bond Forward Trades shall be subject to checks for adequacy of Margins. The day of commencement of such exposure check shall be a date notified by Clearing Corporation falling prior to the Settlement Date of the Bond Forward Trade.

7. Clearing Corporation may set additional initial margin for Trades conducted by a Member at off-market prices. Such margin shall be payable by the seller of the security if the prices are set lower than market price, or by the buyer of the security if the prices set higher than the market price. Such margin shall be equal to the difference between the traded price and the market price;

Such margin shall be released after the concerned trade is marked to market margin and mark to market margin on such trade has been actually collected from the concerned counterparty;

8. The mark to market margin shall be worked out based on the price movements on the underlying securities corresponding to each trade. For computing price changes, mark to market price as described in sub-Regulation (B) below shall be compared against the trade price.

II. Triparty Repo Trades

1. Clearing Corporation shall adopt the following risk management practices for Triparty Repo Trades:
 - i. Clearing Corporation shall cover its risk by prescribing borrowing limit, initial margin, mark-to-market margin and volatility margin. The securities in the TPR GILT Accounts of the Member and its Constituent shall be subjected to a valuation exercise during the day and at the end of each business day to ensure that the borrowings of the Member including its Constituents are fully collateralised at any point of time and its initial margin obligations stand fully met. The valuation shall be carried out using the mark to market price computed by Clearing Corporation;
 - ii. Clearing Corporation may, at its discretion, specify rates of haircut in percentage terms for all eligible securities as collateral in terms of Regulation B (3) of Chapter IV. Such haircut rates shall be applied on the mark to market price of such securities. Clearing Corporation shall have the authority to modify such rates at such periodicity as it may deem fit;
 - iii. Clearing Corporation may, at its discretion and after due notification, set different set of haircut rates for different classes of Members, based on their nature of business, net worth or such other factors as may be decided by the Clearing Corporation from time to time;
 - iv. Clearing Corporation may, after due notification to respective Member, set Single order Limit/ prudential limit for each Member and its Constituent(s) in terms of its respective aggregate outstanding orders or Trades. Such limit may be set based on their nature of business, net worth, credit rating/ grading or such other factors as may be decided by the Clearing Corporation from time to time. In the event of Member exceeding such limit, Clearing Corporation shall be entitled to set higher initial margin rates for the Member in respect of Trades which are in excess of such limits.

Notwithstanding the credit rating/ grading, Clearing Corporation may impose restrictions on the exposure limits in case of any regulatory actions/ deterioration in financial position/ adverse market report etc.

- v. Clearing Member may, under advice to Clearing Corporation, set prudential limit for each of its Constituents in terms of such Constituent's aggregate outstanding Trades.
- vi. Members shall be provided with an option for Prefunding which will be earmarked towards borrowing and/or lending limit(s).

B). MARK - TO - MARKET PRICE

- 1. Mark to market price shall be computed as notified by Clearing Corporation from time to time.

C). PROCESS

1. Initial Margin

I. Outright, market repo, GSL Transactions and Bond Forward Trades (other than Triparty Repo Trades)

- 1.1. The initial margin obligation of each Member / Constituent in respect of each of its outstanding Trades shall be computed by multiplying the value of the relative security(ies) with the corresponding risk exposure numbers (termed as Margin factors) as described in Regulation A 1 above; (value for this purpose shall mean total consideration of the trade. Clearing Corporation may, after due notification, consider the value of the trade at its Mark- to- Market price after the process of marking to market of the trade is over or after subjecting Trades done at off - market prices to additional initial margin). The margin shall be computed for Proprietary Trades of the Clearing Member and for the Trades of each of its Constituents and no offset shall be made available between the Proprietary Trades and Trades of Constituents or between Trades of two Constituents';
- 1.2. The sum total of the initial margins of each individual outstanding trade for a Member, as computed in sub - Regulation C 1 (1. 1) above, shall form the initial margin obligation of that Member;
- 1.3. A Member's initial margin obligation shall be computed online on a Trade by Trade basis, immediately on receipt of the Trade and / or as at the cutoff time of each Trading Session of a business day on a Trade by Trade basis and shall form the basis for deciding whether that Member's Trade(s) has exceeded its Risk Exposure Limit;
- 1.4. While aggregating initial margin on each outstanding Trade as described above, the Trades of the Member and the Trades of each of its Constituents shall be grouped separately. In each such group, offset shall be allowed between initial margins on buy Trades and sale Trades in same security for same SettlementDate except when such buy or sell trade is a repo or GSL Transaction 1st leg. For such Trades, lower of the net buy quantity and net sale quantity in the particular security having same Settlement Date would be arrived at. Thereafter, difference in the amount payable for the buy quantity would be compared against amount receivable on the sale quantity, using first in first out principle. If the difference is positive i.e. payable amount is higher than receivable amount, such difference would be treated as initial margin for such group of Trades. Any residual buy or sale amount shall be subjected to initial margin as if the trade is concluded by the Member only for such residual amount. This provision shall come into effect upon notification by Clearing Corporation.;

- 1.5. While computing the difference amount for initial margin as mentioned in Regulation C 1(1.4) above, the 1st leg of repo deals shall be excluded from such computation;
- 1.6. The initial margin in respect of a repo and/or reverse repo and/or GSL Transaction(s) shall be computed based on the value of the first leg of the trade till its Settlement. Thereafter, initial margin in respect of the transaction shall be computed based on the value of the Settlement of second leg of the trade;
- 1.7. If the first leg of a repo/ reverse repo / GSL Transaction is to trigger any offset against any other outstanding trade, as per Regulation C 1 (1.4) above, the value of the first leg of the trade shall be ignored for computation of initial margin. If such trade has, however, been done at off market price, the trade may be subjected to additional initial Margin requirement as described in Regulation A I (1.6) above;
- 1.8. In Regulation C 1 (I - 1.6) above, if the value of the first leg of the trade is higher than the net outstanding trade position in the security in relation to which it is to trigger offset, Initial Margin shall be computed for the amount of difference between the value of the first leg of the repo/ reverse repo trade and the net outstanding value of the trade positions in the said security. Such amount shall be treated as initial margin against the first leg of such Repo/ Reverse Repo trade.

II. Triparty Repo Trades

- 1.1. The initial margin for Triparty Repo Trades shall be arrived at based on Value at Risk or such other means as may be decided by Clearing Corporation from time to time and such factors shall be expressed as a percentage of the 2nd leg consideration. Clearing Corporation may however set different initial Margin rates for Triparty Repo Trades having

- different maturity periods. Clearing Corporation may, however, at its discretion, set uniform initial margin factor for all Triparty Repo Trades;
- 1.2. Clearing Corporation may, at its discretion and after due notification, set different initial margin rates for different Members and / or Constituent(s) of Clearing Member, based on their nature of business, net worth or such other factors as may be decided by the Clearing Corporation from time to time;
 - 1.3. The initial margin obligations for Triparty Repo deals shall be computed by multiplying the 2nd leg consideration of each trade with the corresponding specific initial Margin rates or the uniform margin factor, as applicable for the Member and then aggregating the margin obligations.
 - 1.4. Provided that if a Member or its Constituent have borrowing and lending in Triparty Repo of same 2nd leg maturity date, and if such Trades have resulted in a net loss computed on a first In first out basis, then such loss would also be added to its initial Margin liability.

2. Mark to Market Margin

I. Outright, market repo, GSL Transactions and Bond Forward Trades (other than Triparty Repo Trades)

- 2.1. A Member shall be liable to maintain mark to market margin in respect of adverse positions on its outstanding trades;
- 2.2. The mark to market margin obligation shall be computed in respect of each such Trade(s) by multiplying the value of relative securities with the corresponding price movement as described in sub- Regulation A I (3) above;
- 2.3. The sum total of mark to market margins of each individual outstanding Trade as computed in Sub- Regulation 2 - I (2. 2) above shall form the mark to market margin obligation of the Member and / or its Constituents and such margin shall be maintained till the Settlement of such trade;
- 2.4. While aggregating mark to market margin on each outstanding trade as described above, the Trades of the Member and the Trades of each of its Constituents shall be grouped separately. In each such group, offset shall be allowed between mark to market margins on buy Trades and sell Trades in same security for same Settlement Date (i. e. if mark to market Margin is recoverable from a Member for his buy Trades on a security for a Settlement Date, such margin amount shall be reduced by the notional mark to market gain on the sale Trades of the same Member in the same security for the same Settlement Date. Reverse would be the case if mark to market margin is recoverable from a Member for its sale Trades);
- 2.5. A mark to market margin obligation shall be computed as at the end of each business day and shall be valid till its computation as at the end of the subsequent business day; In case of high Volatility, Clearing Corporation shall also collect MTM margin on intra- day basis from the Members/ their Constituents

- 2.6. Provided that, in case of Bond Forward Trades and outright Trades reported by either of the counter - party on a day other than the day of the trade, Clearing Corporation shall be entitled to recover Mark to Market margin for such trade before acceptance for guaranteed settlement.
- 2.7. The first leg of a repo/ reverse repo / GSL Transaction shall not be subjected to any MTM margin requirement. If however, the trade has been conducted at off - market prices so as to attract additional initial Margin in terms of Regulation A - I (6) above, mark to market loss, if any, will be collected from such Members or their Constituents. However, no benefit would be extended for mark to market profit on such Trades;
- 2.8. Mark to market margin shall be payable on the second leg of a repo/ reverse repo / GSL Transaction in the usual manner. Such margin, however, shall become payable at the end of the day prior to the Settlement of first leg of the concerned Trade;
- 2.9. A portion of the mark to market margin shall be payable within the stipulated time of the next working day. This portion, to be denoted as incremental mark to market margin will comprise of mark to market margin in respect of fresh deals received during the day and any increase in mark to market margin on Trades outstanding as on previous working day. Provided that, any additional initial margin liability in terms of Regulation A - I (6), initial margin liability in respect of offsetting deals in terms of Regulation C - 1 (1. 4) and additional mark to market Margin liability in terms of Regulation 3 (3. 5) in so far it relates to the change in value of the outstanding Trades will not be taken into consideration for the purpose of computation of incremental mark to market margin.

II. Triparty Repo Trades

- 2.1. The securities in the TPR GILT Account of the Member for determining borrowing limit shall be subjected to mark - to- market valuation during the day and at the end of each business day as described in sub – Regulation B 1 above;
- 2.2. In the event of mark to market value of the securities along with cash margin, if any, deposited for the purpose of allocation of borrowing limit falling short of the funds obligations for 2nd leg consideration of Triparty Repo Trades, representing the borrowing of the Member or its Constituents or mark to market value of the securities together with cash margin, if any, deposited towards initial margin falling short of the initial margin liability of the Member or its Constituents at the end of the day, Clearing Corporation shall make a margin call on such Members in respect of whom such shortage occurs;

- 2.3. The mark to market valuation done by Clearing Corporation at the end of each business day shall be valid till its next computation either intraday on next business day or at the end of the subsequent business day. However, Clearing Corporation shall value any security deposited during day, immediately after deposit, and provide the Members benefit of increase in borrowing limit during the business day;
- 2.4. Clearing Corporation may set additional initial margin for Triparty Repo Trades conducted by a Member or its Constituents at off market interest rates. Such margin shall be payable by the borrower if the interest rate of borrow trade is higher than the interest rate at which similar tenor is dealt in the market or by the lender if the interest rate of lend trade is lower than the interest rate at which similar tenor is dealt in the market. Such margin shall be equal to the difference between the interest rate at which borrow/ lend trade is done and the interest rate dealt in the market for similar tenor. Clearing Corporation's decision in regard to identification of Trades at off market prices shall be final and binding on all concerned parties.

3. Volatility Margin

3.1 Volatility Margin constitutes the Margin obligation required to be fulfilled by a Member or its Constituents as their contribution to MCC / TPR Collateral in relation to a sudden increase in Volatility of interest rates/ bond prices and shall be applied, at the discretion of Clearing Corporation, on:

- (i). Outstanding Trades; and/ or

- (iii). Securities contribution to TPR Collateral towards Triparty Repo Trades;

3.2 Such Margin may be imposed by Clearing Corporation at any time during the day and as a result, the balance of the Members or their Constituents in their MCC / TPR Collateral Accounts may be reduced on re-computation and the Initial Margin requirements in respect of their outstanding Trades may be increased;

3.3 Members will be notified by Clearing Corporation prior to the collection and/ or maintenance of volatility margin;

3.4 Upon imposition of Volatility Margin, if it is observed that the MCC/ TPR Collateral balance of a Member or any of its Constituents is inadequate to cover the Margin requirements on account of their outright, market repo, GSL Transaction, Bond Forward Trades and/ or Triparty Repo Trades, it shall be the responsibility of the said Member to replenish the shortfall as directed by Clearing Corporation.
